News & Views

A bi-weekly section where readers will be informed on subjects of seasonal interest, upcoming events and other timely topics.

TAMARACK NATURE CENTER- located at 5287 Otter Lake Road in the Township, provides visitors with unique opportunities to enjoy nature! More than four miles of woodchipped paths, paved trails and boardwalks provide year-round access to forests, prairies and ponds. At "Discovery Hollow" children can build a tree fort, climb cliffs, make a dam in a stream, play in a garden, etc! For more information, call 651-407-5350 or visit tamarack@co.ramsey.mn.us

DID YOU KNOW THAT YOUR GRASS MUST BE KEPT SHORTER THAN 8 INCHES, – and that brush, leaves, grass or weed clippings must be disposed of properly

- not on public property, open spaces, wetland areas or in drainage ways. The Township's refuse hauler, Republic Services (Allied Waste), will pick up grass clippings in "compostable" bags, from April 15th – November 30th, on your regular pick up day.

WHAT FACTORS ATTRACT A CAR THIEF AND INCREASE YOUR RISK OF BECOMING A VICTIM OF THEFT FROM AUTO?

Leaving your vehicle unlocked and/or leaving windows down (even in your garage); Leaving keys in the vehicle or a spare key hidden on the vehicle; Leaving a vehicle running unattended; Parking in poorly lit areas; Leaving valuables and packages in the vehicle.
